

I am pro-Sinclair. Let them show their TV show and tell the other side of the story: the side that the Democrats and the Liberal media have chosen to ignore without considering the facts of the case. This is good journalism, and fair. Not to let them go on would be unfair.